

FRENCH ELECTIONS. MAY BE HELD UP

Business Confronting Deputies Not Likely to Be Cleared Up by October 26.

CAMPAIGN HELP ASKED

Attempt Made to Have Government Pay for Pro-Candidates' Literature.

PARIS, Sept. 13.—All indications point to the fact that the eleventh Legislature, whose mandate expired in May, 1918, will not be dissolved in time to proceed with the elections on October 26. The tentative date semi-officially agreed upon.

Since the Deputies resumed their sittings on August 25, after two weeks' vacation, little headway has been made in clearing up the voluminous order of the day confronting them. With the ratification of the treaty, a foregone conclusion, the Deputies of all parties have busied themselves with the more personal matter of the electoral law as affecting the coming election. Numerous amendments tending to postpone until 1923, or render ineffective, proportional representation have been proposed and voted upon after lengthy speeches and tumultuous sessions.

The climax was reached to-day when Deputy Varenne proposed an amendment to the electoral law of July 12, 1913, whereby the campaign literature, posters and propaganda of all candidates shall be paid for by the Government, which would undertake to have copies delivered to every voter in behalf of candidates of all political parties.

Louis Klotz, the Finance Minister, strongly opposed the measure, first, because it entailed an expenditure of between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000, and second, because extremists and Socialists would be using Government funds to distribute Bolshevik literature and tracts against the republic.

The Socialists contended they were not supplied with funds, as they were the representatives of the people, while the other candidates were backed by powerful corporations and business interests in a position "to flood the constituencies with money."

The debate in the Chamber was bitter. There was such an uproar several times that M. Deschanel intervened, saying: "This debate, where the personal interests of the members alone are at stake, is humiliating enough without giving the country such a spectacle."

Jean Bon, the stormy petrel of the Socialist party, whose chance of reelection are considered so slim that he may not be a candidate, brought down upon him the wrath of his Socialist colleagues by saying: "Let us meet our political death bravely."

The amendment was rejected by a vote of 246 to 224.

Meanwhile the Socialist convention was sitting at the headquarters of the labor federation, where Albert Thomas, Dejeante, Dalbiez and other Socialists voted for war credits and disapproved of the Russian Soviets.

In the Chamber M. Klotz and Louchere made optimistic speeches on the Versailles treaty referring particularly to the financial and reparations clauses.

WIRELESS FROM LOST SHIP.

Agents of Valbanera Told of Message at Key West.

HAVANA, Sept. 13.—Word was received here indirectly to-day from the Spanish steamship Valbanera, from Spanish ports for Havana and New Orleans, which arrived off Havana on Tuesday but was lost sight of with the beginning of the cyclone and was believed to have put to sea to ride out the storm.

The agents here of the Valbanera announced they had been driven to Key West wireless station that the ship had been heard trying to communicate with Havana. Her location was unknown.

OBREGON TO FIGHT IF U. S. INTERVENES

Presidential Candidate Denies He Is Anti-American.

NOGALES, Ariz., Sept. 13.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, former Minister of War in the Carranza Cabinet, and a candidate for President in 1920, announced to-day that he would take the field against the United States in the event of armed intervention by the United States.

At the same time Gen. Obregon denied statements he claimed had been made by the United States that he is anti-American, claiming these statements were the work of propagandists.

Whatever the excuse for launching armed intervention against Mexico and whatever the pledges shall be, I shall be ready to take the field against the armed forces," Gen. Obregon declared.

"I feel positive that this same stand would be taken by all my countrymen with the exception of the small bands whose reprehensible actions are provoking a conflict between Mexico and the United States, seeking to avoid punishment under our laws, which sooner or later is due to fall on them."

SIX SEIZED AS LOFT THIEVES.

Stolen Plunder Valued at $10,000 Recovered.

Morris Ehrlich, manager of the Star Trucking Company, at 31 East Thirtieth street, hurried into the West Thirtieth street police station yesterday afternoon and reported that thieves had driven away with one of his trucks and a load of silk and serge in bolts worth altogether $10,000. Five men and a woman were locked up last night charged with grand larceny, and Detectives Mondo and Hogan, who made the arrests, said that all but a small part of the stolen truckload of goods had been recovered.

The detectives said they traced the truck first to 1901 Lexington avenue, where Isadore Comisky has a store. They arrested him there, along with Sol Mopfer of 5 East 117th street, Morris Levine of 237 South Fifth street, Brooklyn, and Harry Margolin of 81 West End avenue, Manhattan Beach. Some of the stolen goods had been sold, the detectives alleged, so they went to 40 West 118th street and took into custody Victor Liebowitz and his sister Mary. All of the men except Comisky, the police asserted, are connected with silk or dress goods houses in the loft district.
